- Objective of the Committee : Courts now insist that most cases have to be first given a chance for amicable settlement through mediation. Reconciliation of disputes between two or more parties can be done through mediation. To appoint mediator to sort out the petty cases. This can be done with the consent of both parties OUT OF COURT or with the Intervention of court.
- What Clubs should do : To organise a function and appoint Presiding Officer who is true and knowledgeable. A panel of mediators should be appointed. One or two mediators are appointed for every dispute. If possible some of the Retired judges or experienced and trained mediators can be invited to guide and redress the disputes amicably. Clubs can also organise training programs for mediators. Mediators need not have any legal background.
- List Of Clubs having such Projects : We plan to organize such function in the month of March in Kalyan-Ulhasnagar Area.
