Objective of the Committees	:	Fireside meetings refer to meeting of a small group of Rotarians at leisure. The objective is to promote fellowship and bonding amongst Rotarians. This helps in improving involvement of Rotarians in weekly meetings and club projects.
What Clubs should do	:	Clubs should make small groups of the Rotarians and encourage them to meet once a month or quarter at their homes. Spouses are also encouraged to attend.  Clubs should then monitor that the meetings are held.
