Objective of the Committee	:	To help clubs understand the importance of developing weekly club programs that provide club members with the information & motivation necessary to increase their participation in activities that serve the Club, the Community & the World. Good programs will enhance the members Rotary knowledge, reinforce values of continued membership and make members aware of local & world community. Clubs should have well balanced programs with Rotary & non Rotary topics. Committee will try to publish the list of good speakers from Rotary & outside Rotary on various topics.
What Clubs should do	:	Form a Program committee at club level. Clubs should ensure that their weekly meetings are interesting, entertaining, effective and well planned. Clubs should have properly planned projects & programs. Time management for weekly meetings & other programs is very essential.
